

Roots & Wings Peer Evaluation

Evaluator: _____ Project Creator: _____

	Absolutely	To Some Extent	Not Really
Map
includes countries of origin for both sides of the family tracks journeys from countries of origin to Vancouver is easy to read and understand with explanations, color-coding, and a legend
Timeline
Includes both a world history and family history side and is easy to read.
Contains a number of major Jewish/Israeli and world history events that help to put family history into historical context.
Contains significant milestone family history dates for both sides of the family going back three generations (to great-grandparents).
Family Tree
Is creatively presented, demonstrates effort, and displays a personal touch and individuality.
Displays family tree going back three generations to great-grandparents.
Clearly differentiates from generation to generation AND between bloodline relatives and other relatives.
Flags
Flags from countries marked on the map assignment are clearly displayed with the name of the country connected to the flag to identify it.
Written Work
A popular phrase in at least one other family-related language is clearly displayed as part of the project and the reason for the choice of phrase is given.
The sentence is written in the lettering/symbols/alphabet of the other language(s).
"Hello My Name Is," "I Am Jewish," and Narrative Essay are included on the board.
Overall Creativity/Presentation
It is obvious from the visual presentation of the project that a great deal of effort was invested in its design and construction, using a tri-fold board or other pre-approved presentation format. Even with following the instructions, there is a uniqueness to the project which draws one's interest. There are artifacts included in the project to enhance its quality.

Narrative Essay:

Did you hear voice in this piece?

What are some examples from the essay that provided you with "voice?"

Are the writing conventions of spelling and grammar properly executed? ☐ Absolutely ☐ To Some Extent ☐ Not Really

Presentation/Effort:

The visual presentation is creative

☐ Absolutely ☐ To Some Extent ☐ Not Really

Provide at least 2 examples to support your evaluation:

It seemed to me like the creator of this project put forth appropriate effort

☐ Absolutely ☐ To Some Extent ☐ Not Really

Explain the reasons for your evaluation:

The following aspects of this Roots & Wings project really caught my eye: